NORTH TEXAS FOOD BANK TO HOST 19TH ANNUAL EMPTY BOWLS FUNDRAISER AT NEW LOCATION, FASHION INDUSTRY GALLERY (F.I.G.)

DALLAS (February 26, 2018) – The North Texas Food Bank will host its 19th annual Empty Bowls fundraiser, presented by Kroger, on March 2 at a new location, the Fashion Industry Gallery (F.I.G.)

In addition to soup and other bowl-friendly fare from more than 20 North Texas restaurants, attendees can select a handcrafted bowl from some of Texas' finest artist as a memento of the day. There will also be live music from Booker T. Washington students and a cooking demonstration by Chef Chris George.

All proceeds from the event will benefit the North Texas Food Bank's feeding programs.

WHEN: FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 2018

WHERE: The F.I.G.
1807 Ross Avenue
Dallas, Texas 75201

WHO: Media interviews available from NTFB representatives

About the North Texas Food Bank:

The North Texas Food Bank (NTFB) is a top-ranked nonprofit hunger-relief organization with its primary distribution center in Southwest Dallas, and administrative headquarters located in the Dallas Farmers Market. Each day, NTFB provides access to more than 190,000 meals for hungry children, seniors, and families through a network of more than 1,000 programs and more than 200 Partner Agencies. In fiscal year 2017, NTFB provided access to some 70 million nutritious meals. While the NTFB is making steady progress toward closing the hunger gap, much work remains to be done to reach the organization's 10-year goal of providing 92 million nutritious meals annually by 2025.

NTFB is a member of Feeding America, a national hunger relief organization.
