STATEMENT FROM THE NORTH TEXAS FOOD BANK REGARDING CEO SEARCH

(DALLAS, March 1, 2017) – The North Texas Food Bank announced today that it has retained the professional services of Dallas-based Victory Search Group to recruit candidates for the position of President and Chief Executive Officer. The selection of the firm was made by the Food Bank’s board of directors based on Victory’s successful prior placement of current executives and their understanding of the goals and culture of the organization.

“Finding the right leader for this well-respected organization is our top priority,” said NTFB Board Chair Tom Black. “We have big shoes to fill, and we know that the growth of the Food Bank and its mission is paramount as we work to achieve our goal of providing access to 92 million meals annually by 2025. The search will begin immediately, and we plan to hire our new leader by summer.”

For information about the search, including job requirements, contact Jim Chambers, Director, at nonprofit@VictorySearchGroup.com.

About Victory Search Group

Victory Search Group (VSG) is a senior-level retained executive search firm serving a select group of clients from five geographically dispersed offices around the United States. VSG employs a detailed search process that places significant emphasis on understanding a Client’s needs, organizational issues and expectations, and the critical factors required for success by an incoming executive. About the North Texas Food Bank

The North Texas Food Bank (NTFB) is a top-ranked nonprofit hunger-relief organization with its primary distribution center in Southwest Dallas, and administrative headquarters located in the Dallas Farmers Market. Each day, NTFB provides access to more than 190,000 meals for hungry children, seniors, and families through a network of more than 1,000 programs and more than 200 Partner Agencies. In fiscal year 2016, NTFB provided access to some 70 million nutritious meals. While the NTFB is making steady progress toward closing the hunger gap, much work remains to be done to reach the organization’s 10-year goal of providing 92 million nutritious meals annually by 2025. NTFB is a member of Feeding America, a national hunger relief organization.
