NORTH TEXAS FOOD BANK TO HOST DAY OF SERVICE IN HONOR OF DR. KING

DALLAS (January 14, 2022) – The North Texas Food Bank (NTFB) will honor the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. by hosting two special volunteer shifts on Monday, January 17.

Volunteers from around the community will come together to sort and box food for distribution to NTFB's Feeding Network across its 13-county service area.

Dr. King once said, "Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'what are you doing for others?'" To that end, volunteers will also have the opportunity to participate in activities that encourage them to "Dream of a Difference," during each volunteer shift.

WHEN: Monday, January 17, 2022

WHERE: North Texas Food Bank, 3677 Mapleshade Ln., Plano, TX 75075

WHO: Volunteers from around the community who Dream of a Difference

About the North Texas Food Bank

The North Texas Food Bank (NTFB) is a top-ranked non-profit hunger-relief organization that sources, packages and distributes food through a network of more than 200 Partner Agencies across 13 North Texas counties. The organization also provides food to children, seniors and families through various direct-delivery programs, including mobile pantries. In its last fiscal year, the NTFB provided access to more than 125 million nutritious meals, a 28% percent increase over the prior year. In response to the ongoing elevated hunger crisis, the organization has launched a $500 million campaign, Nourish North Texas, to provide more food for today and hope for tomorrow by addressing the root causes of food insecurity. The North Texas Food Bank is designated a 4-Star Exceptional organization by Charity Navigator based on its governance, integrity and financial stability. NTFB is a member of Feeding America, the nation's largest hunger-relief organization.
